"I am extremely excited to add to our portfolio of products that have an already proven and loyal following and soon we will have the opportunity to expand these wonderful pastries in to the supermarkets," commented Fernando "Oswaldo" Leonzo, Chief Executive Officer of Hispanica International Delights of America, Inc.

Mr. Leonzo continued, "This deal is just the beginning of building out our portfolio of brands, that we will carry on a proprietary basis. It will also allow us to introduce this great product into our own DSD infrastructure that we are building in the coming quarters."

Dana Reyes, founder of Just Buns stated, "I am excited to partner with Hispanica International. We have been working for the past year, to introduce our first line of frozen packaged Swirly Buns in order to bring them to the supermarket chains. We couldn't be happier to have a strategic distribution partner. We have already gotten a high level of interest from food brokers and their supermarket buyers to introduce our product and we think that with Hispanica's help, we can grow the brand exponentially."
